Dear Mr. Amodeo,

Dell has forwarded your letter, which reached me today. It is a very kind one, although I'm sorry you cut the title page off to do it.

I think there are several courses of legal action open to Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. But remember, I am not a lawyer. I think she has a number of slander actions, and I think she has an action against the Dallas Police.

These actions, if they are possible, require fewer of the kinds of witnesses who have died.

It is a common misunderstanding how many of the files are sealed. The majority are now and I've been working in them. I'll soon have the third book, which will reproduce several hundred pages of them.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
